Event: Idaho Author Book Signing at the Potlatch Library

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Author to Sign Books at the Potlatch Library

Idaho author, Khaliela Wright, will celebrate the launch her debut novel, Klara's Journey, with an author reading and Q & A Session at the Potlatch Library on Saturday, July 15th at 7:00 pm. Klara's Journey is a high fantasy novel target to the new adult market with crossover appeal for Outlander fans. The story features the themes of trust, betrayal, and consent. #MeToo. The novel has received an Honorable Mention from the Idaho Writers Guild and garnered praise from Kirkus Review and the Midwest Book Review.

Wright is a U of I and WSU graduate and a long-time Potlatch resident. In addition, she was instrumental in founding the Palouse Writers Guild, a non-profit service organization dedicated to bringing professional development to authors, championing indie books sales, and helping self-publishers navigate the business side of writing.

Ms. Wright is available for phone interviews on weekdays before 11 am. For in-person interviews, please schedule an appointment. She can be reached at [phone number] or by replying to this email.
